Michael Korber: An investor's guide to credit markets

By Perpetual Asset Management
4 July 2024

How much do investors really know about credit, the “fascinating cousin” to bonds? Michael Korber – Perpetual’s managing director, credit and fixed income – joins Livewire to give investors the inside track.

- Why Michael likes Arnott’s as an issuer
- Three factors he considers to identify “fair value”
- Register now to attend a LIVE webinar with Michael

Above, Michael explains the differences between garden-variety government bonds and the universe of corporate credit, and why investing in assets outside of government bonds could offer more diversification and income opportunities. He also shares his process for identifying “fair value” investments and reveals one issuer he likes for the Perpetual Credit Income Trust (PCI) portfolio.

Tune into the video to hear more.
